

St. Patrick, Kankakee ~ a Viatorian Parish

15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 15, 2018

Sent ... Two by Two!

God, who has reconciled us to one, also another sends us forth.
Let us go to gather the broken as we bring healing in our hands.

Jesus, who has shaped us into new people
with his grace-filled hands, sends us forth.
*Let us go to welcome those we have ignored,
drawing them into a warm embrace.*

The Spirit, who teaches us how to look at others
with the eyes of love and hope, sends us forth.
*Let us go to become one with those tossed aside,
to be the community of hope for which they have searched.*

May we never forget that this is not our work
but a continuation of the Lord's work,
which he has graciously chosen to share with us.
May we walk always "two by two" with you, O Lord!

For Reflection ...

♦ Am I putting all my trust in the "baggage" that I have collected throughout my life instead of traveling light trusting in God? ♦ Do I participate in the mission of Jesus? ♦ Which point of the mission is more important for us today? ♦ Why?

Please Pray for These Men and Women Serving in the Military ...

Synthia Dorsey, Dustin Foltz, Kelton Gifford,
David Hodak, Nathan Hornback,
Joseph Jordan, Henry Kijewski,
Matthew Lanasa, Troy Martin, Sarah Miller,
Keith Mulholland, Justin Phelps,
John T. Raimondo, Scott Riegel,
Daniel Ryan, Andrew Ryan,
Erik Schultz, Gregory Smith,
Jessica Smith, and Brandi Zinnel.

Be with them, Lord, and keep them safe!

The Gospel must be proclaimed in poverty.
Jesus wanted the disciples to have a no-frills-attached attitude –
no food, no sack, no money in their belts.
This kind of detachment and trust in God
helped the disciples heal the wounded and oppressed.

This is the mission of the Church:
to heal ... to care for people.

I sometimes describe the Church as a field hospital.
True, there are many wounded, so many wounded!
There are so many people who need their wounds to be healed!

This is the mission of the Church:
to heal the wounded hearts, to open doors, to free people,
to say that God is good, that God forgives all, that God is our Father, that God is tender, that God is always waiting for us.

GOOD STEWARDSHIP

Fifteen Random Stewardship Ideas for the Month of July from the International Catholic Stewardship Council

1. Invite a single friend over for a meal.
2. Turn off the TV, phone, and computer, and spend an hour devoted to someone you love.
3. Attend an extra Mass on a weekday this month.
4. Abstain from something you like – meat, a latte, a cold drink – on Fridays and save the money for a charity.
5. Take your rosary with you for an early morning walk.
6. Recycle more.
7. Think of a charity which is amply blessed at Christmas. Remember it with a gift mid-year.
8. Each day, say a prayer for one of the world's trouble spots.
9. Surprise an old friend with a phone call.
10. Buy or pick a flower for someone without a "reason".
11. Take your family to a farmer's market if in season.
12. Stop for a moment during your busy day and enjoy an ice cream cone or other favorite treat.
13. If you hear a great homily, tell the homilist.
14. Splurge on some produce and buy enough to share with someone in need.
15. On occasion, try turning your prayer before meals into a spontaneous prayer of thanks, using your own words.

IF YOU FIND YOUR ENVELOPE NUMBER –
Read the Bulletin carefully each week and you may be in for a surprise! If you find your Bulletin Number in an article or list, call the Rectory Office at (815) 932-6716 - during regular Office hours - and you will win a nice little gift!

MEMORIAL CANDLES

The Holy Family Candle
 burns in memory of Fritz Sullivan.
The Blessed Sacrament Candle
 burns in memory of the Kelly and Sullivan Families.

People have always judged the message of Christ by the life of the messengers more than by the words they spoke. Dom Helder Camara, the saintly Brazilian bishop of the dispossessed, used to tell his catechists, who were speaking to illiterate people: 'Sisters and brothers, watch how you live. Your lives may be the only Gospel your listeners will ever read'.

Forgive me, Lord, for the times when my lifestyle distorted your Gospel.
